THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, OCTOBER 26, to Saturday, NOVEMBER 2. 1734.

From the Craftſman, July 20.

HIs Majeſty has been pleaſed to order that the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the 16th Inſt. ſhould be further prorogued to Tueſday the 13th Day of Auguſt next: And that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, which ſtand prorogued to Friday the 19th Inſt. be further prorogued to Friday the 15th of Auguſt next.

On Tueſday came on a remarkable Trial at Guildhall, between an Innkeeper at Graveſend & a Woman of the ſame Place, who was to enjoy a conſiderable Annuity, to be paid her by the former, ſo long as ſhe could keep a Secret. The Woman had been ſome Years his Houſe Keeper, and the Secret was the Settlement which he thought proper to make her, on Account of her Services; but it happening that the Innkeeper married ſoon after, and the Houſekeeper being obliged to make Room for the Wife, her Reſentment, it ſeems, prevail'd over her Intereſt, and the Secret, as't was urg'd, was unhappily blabb'd. But the Jury having thoroughly weigh'd the Merits of the Caſe, and being of Opinion that the Provocation was ſpecial, a Verdict went in favour of the Woman, and her Annuity is to be continued.

On Sunday Evening arrived an Expreſs from Verſailles with Advice, that her moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had been ſafely delivered of a Princeſs.

Some private Letters from the Rhine adviſe, that the Day that the Garriſon capitulated was Monday Se'nnight, the 19th Inſt. N. S. that his Highneſs the Prince of Orange arrived the ſame Day in the Imperial Army, and was lodg'd in a Houſe at Rouſtheim, where Prince Eugene had his Head Quarters; that the ſaid Houſe had been fitted up for the Reſidence of the King of Pruſſia, but that his Majeſty choſe rather to lodge in a Tent, which he cauſed to be pitch'd in the middle of the little Camp his Troops have form'd near Oberhauſen, where the French have one of their Bridges. The Prince Royal has a Tent near the King his Father's.

Tueſday both Houſes of Parliament met, purſuant to their Prorogation, and by Virtue of a Writ from his Majeſty under the great Seal, directed to the Right. Hon. the Lord High Chancellor, &c. were further prorogued to Tueſday the 13th of Auguſt next.

The Prince of Wirtemberg is not dead; he had four Horſes ſhot under him, and was bruiſed in his Thigh when he fell with the laſt.

July 27. Our Court has certain Advice from the Rhine that Prince Eugene, having decamp'd with his Army ſo ſoon as he heard of the Surrender of Philipsburg, had ſeparated 25 Miles from that of the French, meeting with no Oppoſition from Marſhal d'Aſfeldt in his March; and that the Imperial Army were purſuing their March to Heilbron, and the French theirs to Mentz, to lay the Country under Contribution and ſecure the Moſelle.

Tueſday Night arrived the Mail from France, which confirms the Account of her moſt Chriſtian Majeſty being ſafely delivered of a Princeſs: It likewiſe brings Advice of Prince Eugene's decamping with his whole Army, and that the Marquis d'Aſfeldt had detach'd a Body of Horſe to obſerve his Motions, and apprehending that the Prince deſign'd to paſs the Rhine at Worms, he order'd M de Quadt, with 30,000 Men, to poſt themſelves there along that River, the Remainder of the Army being employ'd in repairing the Fortifications of Philipsburg: It was not known whether the French General intended to lay Siege to another Place, or march forthwith in purſuance of the Imperial Army.

Wedneſday Thomo Chichi, the Indian King, his Queen, the Prince, a War Captain and five Indian Chiefs, with their Interpreter, went in Coaches from the Georgia Office near Old Palace Yard, Weſtminſter, accompanied by James Oglethorpe Eſq; to Kenſington, and were introduced to their Majeſties, and the Royal Family, by Sir Clement Cotterell, Knt Maſter of the Ceremonies, and met with a gracious Reception.

Letters by Tueſday's Poſt from the Rhine ſay that his Highneſs the Prince of Orange was preparing to leave the Imperial Army, and return to the Hague, in order to come to Great-Britain to take his Conſort over to Frieſland.

We hear that the Marſhal Duke de Noailles, who was ſent with a Body of Troops to obſerve the Motion of Prince Eugene's Army, accidentally fell in with the Rear-Guard, and began a briſk Charge, but the whole Army facing about to ſuccour their Rear, the French were immediately obliged to retreat. 'Tis ſaid, that notwithſtanding the Action was ſo ſhort, ſome Hundreds were kill'd and wounded on both Sides. 'Tis added, that the King of Pruſſia, and his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange were preſent, and behaved with the greateſt Conduct and Bravery.

Mantua, July 14. The ally'd Army has paſs'd the Secchia, and are in full March towards Mirandola to beſiege the Place. Count Konigſegg arrieved here on the 11th, to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Army.

Frankfort, July 25. The French Troops, to the Number of 40,000 Men are marching with all Expedition on the Banks of the Rhine for Mentz, in order to inveſt it.

Guaſtalla, July 10. Since the fatal Battle near Parma, and the Retreat of the Imperial Army, a Body of French Troops appeared before this City, and ſummoned the Garriſon to ſurrender; the Governor finding himſelf in no Condition of Defence, and ſeeing beſides that there was no hopes of his being Succoured, deſired to capitulate, and march out with all military Honours; but this was refuſed him, ſo that he was obliged to ſurrender Priſoners of War, with his Garriſon, conſiſting of 800 Men. The 6th the French made themſelves Maſters of Paralara, wherein were 200 Imperialiſts, who were alſo made Priſoners of War, Marſhal de Coigny paſſed the Day before Yeſterday with his Army, thro' Reggiola, going to San Benedetto.

LONDON Aug. 3.

Letters dated the 29th N. S. from the Imperial Army at Bruchſall adviſe, that the Day before Prince Maximilian of Heſſe's Regiment of Grenadiers, conſiſting of 3000 well choſen and appointed Men, paſs'd in Review before the King of Pruſſia, the Prince of Orange, and thirteen Princes

Princes of the Empire, and made a very fine appearance.

The ſame Letters add, that the Prince of Orange was highly careſs'd in the Camp, and had every Day a ſplendid Levee at his Quarters, but that his Stay would be very ſhort in the Imperial Army.

We are credibly informed that ſome of the Mediators for compoſing the preſent Troubles in Europe, have, among other things, propoſed that the Auſtrian Netherlands ſhall be yielded to France and Spain, while the Emperor ſhall have all his Territories in Italy reſtored to him.

We hear that a certain Court has been pleaſed to interpoſe its good Offices with the Czarina, in order to obtain the Marquis de Monti's Liberty, and the Releaſe of the French Troops lately carried into Ruſſia, on board her Czarian Majeſty's Fleet.

They write from Paris, that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty reckons to have a Fleet of 73 Men of War at Sea in two Months time. They are at preſent as follow:

| | |
|---|---|
| In the Mediterranean | 14 |
| In the Italian Seas | 7 |
| In the Road of Copenhagen | 5 |
| Equipping at Toulon | 9 |
| Equipping at Breſt | 27 |
| In the Seas of Barbary in America, &c. | 11 |

'Tis added, that the ſaid Prince has reſolved upon a numerous Augmentation of his Army, and that the Levies are carried on with great Diligence in every part of the Kingdom.

The French Mail which arriv'd on Tueſday Night obſerves only, that Prince Eugene is return'd to his ancient Camp at Heilbron, that the Draught of 15,000 Men, which the Emperor requir'd from his Army to be ſent to Italy, will not take place, upon a Repreſentation made by the Princes of the Empire, that their States would in ſuch caſe be expos'd, and the Imperial Army not in a Condition to make Head againſt the Enemy: That on the other Side the Marſhals d'Asfeldt and Noailles have repaſs'd the Rhine, and lie at Spire with the Groſs of the Army, in order to refreſh 'em ſince their late Fatigue. The Count de Belle-Iſle and M. de Quadt are poſted at Worms with 36,000 Men, moſt of them Cavalry, and a ſtrong Garriſon is left only at Philipsburg with ten Battalions under the Cannon of the Place.

CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 1.

On Wedneſday laſt, being His Majeſty's Birth-Day, His Excellency our Governor being indiſpos'd, Coll Parris, the publick Treaſurer met the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Captains of Ships about Noon at the Council-Chamber; from whence they went in Proceſſion to Granville's Baſtion, where they drank his Majeſty's Health, under the Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Fort. At Night the Windows were illuminated, and the Evening concluded with other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Yeſterday Morning his Excellency being acquainted with the Arrival of 70 of the lower Cherokee Indians near this Town, directed Coll. Parris, Publick Treaſurer of this Province, to meet them, who accordingly went about a Mile out of the Town, and underſtanding that they were come down to ſue for Peace, the Trade with them having been ſtopt for ſome time, they were permitted to come into this Town.

On Wedneſday laſt a Warrant was taken out of the Office of Regiſter of the Court of Vice-Admiralty againſt Capt. Gordon at the Suit of Martha Deane, for a Debt of about 56 l. which being obtained, the Marſhal of the ſaid Court went down to the Ship in Rebellion Road about 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon; when he came within Musket-ſhot of the Ship, the Captain told him, that in caſe he ſhould come any nearer he would fire into the Boat; The Marſhal immediately tacked about, and the Captain fired a Musket-ſhot, which pitch'd very near the Boat, then the Boat lay upon her Oars, and the Marſhal holding up his Warrant, told the Captain he had a Warrant againſt him, upon which the Captain fired a Carriage Gun, and the Marſhal came on ſhore, and made affidavit of the Premiſes, which was corroborated by two or three other Witneſſes who went with him in the Boat.

The Judge of the Vice-Admiralty then iſſued a Warrant againſt the ſaid Captain for the Aſſault, and applyed to His Excellency for Aſſiſtance to the Marſhal, that the Law might be put in Execution: His Excellency directed Capt. Anſon, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, to aid the Marſhal in the due Execution of his Office, and accordingly Capt. Anſon ſent down Mr. Bernard, Maſter of the Squirrel, to aſſiſt the Marſhal. As ſoon as they came to the Ship the Captain hail'd them, and notwithſtanding they told him it was the Boat of the Squirrel, which he knew was the King's Boat, yet he himſelf fired a Musket-ſhot at the Boat, telling them to keep off, for he would not ſuffer any Boat whatever to come on board his Ship. Mr. Bernard told his Men to give way and got in the Wake of the Ship under her Stern, ſo that they could not bring the Carriage-Guns to bear upon her, and rowed up to the Ship, the Captain and the Ship's Crew all the time firing upon the Boat. When the Boat got to the Side of the Ship, the Captain endeavoured to fire a Carriage-Gun into her, but the Boat coming too cloſe to the Ship's ſide, the ſhot could do her no damage, then the Boat fired into the Ship, and the Captain was ſhot through the Body, whereof he inſtantly died.

Yeſterday the Coroners Inqueſt ſat upon the Body of the Deceaſed, ſeveral Evidences were examined and they adjourned to the next Day; the Marſhal who had ſerved the Warrant, was committed to Goal, and Warrants are iſſued againſt ſeveral of the Men that were in the Boat. In the Evening the Body of the Deceaſed which was brought on ſhore to the Houſe of Mr. Baker Merchant in Charleſtown, was decently interr'd

This Day his Majeſty's Snow the Happy returned into this Harbour, very much damaged by Storms; likewiſe arrived here the Maryanne Capt. Shubrick in 7 Weeks from London, and in her Mr. Peter Horry, Merchant of Charles-Town, and ſeveral other Veſſels not yet enter'd.
